

Morgan's Winning Speech

Hi, I'm Morgan, and I was born deaf.

So I went to Rejoice Middle School and there was like a speech contest.

I competed in Oklahoma City with a group of like a couple hundred kids, and it was in the poetry section, and when I competed and said my speech,

I actually tied first place with another girl.

It was kinda crazy because nobody knew I was deaf.

I worked so hard on that piece and I just remember thinking, you know, if I just put in the effort, work hard,

I can just, I can do anything.
